INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of
CSS, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CSS, LLC as of December 31, 2002 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CSS, LLC as of December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statement taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplementary schedules is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statement, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statement and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statement taken as a whole.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION as of December 31, 2002

1. Organization and Business

CSS, LLC (the "Company"), an Illinois limited liability company, was organized on July 8, 1998. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Chicago Board Options Exchange. The Company engages primarily in the proprietary trading of exchange-traded equity securities, equity and index options contracts and other derivative equity instruments.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition and Securities Valuation

Securities transactions and related commission revenue and expenses are recorded on a trade date basis and, accordingly, gains and losses are recorded on unsettled transactions. Futures transactions and resulting gains and losses are recorded on a trade date basis, and, accordingly, gains and losses are recorded on open futures contracts.

Income Taxes

No provision has been made for federal income taxes, as the taxable income of the Company is included in the respective income tax returns of the members. However, the Company is liable for nominal limited liability company state income taxes. These taxes, imposed at the Company level, are included in other expenses in the statement of operations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Depreciation and amortization

Furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements are being depreciated over their estimated useful lives using an accelerated method.

3. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Securities owned, securities sold, not yet purchased, and other financial instruments used for trading purposes are recorded in the Statement of Financial Condition at market value, with related unrealized profit or loss included in net trading gain in the Statement of Operations. As the Company operates as a broker-dealer, all financial instruments are stated at a value that approximates fair value.

as of December 31, 2002

---

4. Agreement and Related-Party Transactions

The Company has a Joint Back Office ("JBO") clearing agreement with O'Connor & Company L.L.C. ("OCC"). The agreement allows JBO participants to receive favorable margin treatment as compared to the full customer margin requirements of Regulation T. As part of this agreement, the Company has invested $10,000 in the preferred interest of OCC. The Company's investment in OCC is reflected as investment in broker-dealer in the Statement of Financial Condition. Under the rules of the Chicago Board Options Exchange, the agreement requires that the Company maintain a minimum net liquidating equity of $1 million with OCC, exclusive of the preferred interest investment.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15(c)3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain "net capital" equal to the greater of $100,000 or 6 and 2/3 % of "aggregate indebtedness", as defined.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $30,218,792 and $100,000, respectively.

6. Lease Commitment

The Company conducts its operations in leased office facilities and annual rentals are charged to current operations. The lease is subject to an escalation clause based on the operating expenses of the lessor.

The minimum annual rental commitments under non-cancelable operating leases are approximately as follows as of December 31, 2002:

Year Ending December 31,	Amount
2003	$ 284,000
2004	293,000
2005	302,000
2006	311,000
2007	320,000
Thereafter	3,034,000
Total	$ 4,544,000

7. Employee Benefit Plan

The Company has established a profit sharing/401(k) plan for qualified employees. The Company may elect to match employees' contributions and make further discretionary contributions to the plan, subject to certain limitations as set forth in the plan agreement.

CSS, LLC

as of December 31, 2002

---

8. Trading Activities

The Company trades in exchange traded equities and derivative equity instruments.

The fair value of derivatives represents unrealized gains and losses on open futures contracts and options contracts at market value. The following table discloses the approximate fair values of derivative financial instruments held for trading as of December 31, 2002, as well as the approximate quarterly average fair values of derivatives held during 2002:

	December 31, 2002	Average During 2002
Futures assets	$ 142,000	$ 195,000
Futures liabilities	670,000	464,000
Equity & index options assets	10,240,000	15,639,000
Equity & index options liabilities	6,359,000	6,899,000

9. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into transactions in derivative financial instruments and other financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk which include exchange-traded equity and index options, futures contracts and short stocks.

Futures contracts provide for the delayed delivery/receipt of securities or money market instruments with the seller/buyer agreeing to make/take delivery at a specified date, at a specified price.

Options contracts grant the purchaser, for the payment of a premium, the right to either purchase from or sell to the writer a specified instrument under agreed terms. As a writer of options and options on futures contracts, the Company receives a premium in exchange for bearing the risk of unfavorable changes in the price of the securities or money market instruments underlying the options.

Securities sold, not yet purchased, represent obligations of the Company to deliver specified securities and thereby create a liability to repurchase the securities in the market at prevailing prices. These transactions may result in off-balance sheet risk as the Company's ultimate obligation to satisfy its obligation for securities sold, not yet purchased may exceed the amount recognized in the statement of financial condition.

All financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk and other derivative financial instruments are held for trading purposes.

Risk arises from the potential inability of counter-parties or exchanges to perform under the terms of the contracts (credit risk) and from changes in the values of securities, interest rates, currency exchange rates or equity index values (market risk).

as of December 31, 2002

9. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk, continued

The contractual or notional amounts related to derivative financial instruments reflect the volume and activity and do not reflect the amounts at risk. At December 31, 2002, the contract or notional amounts of derivative financial instruments used for trading purposes were as follows:

	$ Millions
Futures commitments to purchase	7
Futures commitments to sell	27
Equity & index options held	149
Equity & index options written	178

In management's opinion, the market risk is substantially diminished when all financial instruments, including securities owned and sold, not yet purchased, are aggregated.

At December 31, 2002, significant credit concentrations consisted of approximately $31.7 and $29.4 million, representing the market value of the Company's trading accounts carried by its clearings brokers, O'Connor & Company L.L.C. and Goldman Sachs International, respectively. Management does not consider any credit risk associated with this net receivable to be significant.

10. Subsequent Events

During January 2003, members' capital contributions and withdrawals totaled approximately $55,000 and $400,000, respectively.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT
ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Members of
CSS, LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the statement of financial condition of CSS, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2002, we considered its internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statement and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17A-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), (1) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by Rule 15c3-3(e); and (2) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the proceeding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the proceeding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

Our review indicated that the Company, although not exempt from Rule 15c-3-3, had no reporting requirements because it did not transact a business in securities directly with or for other than members of a national securities exchange and did not carry margin accounts, credit balances or securities for any person defined as a "customer" pursuant to Rule 17a-5(c)(4) and that, as of December 31, 2002, no facts came to our attention to indicate that such conditions were not complied with during the period.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the SEC, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
